

Corporate and Transactional Associate Attorney

Position: Associate

Office: Chicago or New York

Practice Group: General Corporate and Securities

Description: Schiff Hardin LLP is seeking a midlevel associate for our Corporate and Transactional group in our Chicago or New York office. The ideal candidate should have middle market general corporate and M&A experience in a mid-size or large law firm setting. Having securities experience is a plus. This opportunity will allow a successful candidate to join a collegial and professional group of attorneys with a wide range of clients and client needs. Responsibilities include drafting and negotiating various types of transaction documents, advising clients directly on varied corporate law matters, performing due diligence and managing transactions, training junior members of the group, and participating in client development activities.

Required Qualifications:

- 3 to 5 years of experience (J.D. classes of 2014-2016) in a mid-size or large law firm setting.
- Strong academic record, drafting skills, and interpersonal skills.
- Attention to detail and accuracy in all aspects of performance.
- Illinois bar admission (applicants for Chicago office) or New York bar admission (applicants for New York office)
