

TRUSTEES FOR ALASKA

SUSTAIN | PROTECT | REPRESENT

TRUSTEES FOR ALASKA - STAFF ATTORNEY

Trustees for Alaska, is seeking a full-time Staff Attorney in Anchorage, Alaska to join our team of lawyers working to protect a wild and vibrant Alaska where fish, wildlife, and people thrive. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis starting on October 4, until the position is filled.

The ideal candidate will have 4-6 years of litigation experience and a proven ability to foster coordination and cooperation among diverse groups to achieve conservation goals in Alaska. This position is an opportunity to achieve environmental protection while working closely with clients, policy makers, and administrative agency staff.

About Trustees for Alaska

Trustees for Alaska is the only Alaska-based nonprofit public-interest environmental law firm, and is essential to the protection and defense of Alaska's lands, waters, wildlife, and people. Alaska is an amazing place — and it needs guardians to ensure it remains that way. For over 40 years, Trustees has provided free legal services, policy advice, and strategic counsel to Alaska Native organizations and tribes, community groups, and local and national conservation groups. Trustees for Alaska addresses environmental problems proactively and collaboratively with our partners. For more information, see <http://www.trustees.org>.

Job Responsibilities

The Staff Attorney reports to the Legal Director and is responsible for the following:

- Managing a diverse case load that may include coalition-based administrative, legislative, and judicial work
- Working with program staff, clients, and partners to develop and implement legal, political, outreach, communications, and other strategies
- Representing Trustees for Alaska and clients in public forums and with the press
- Delegating and supervising projects for our paralegal and legal interns
- Assisting with administrative, communications, and fundraising as needed

Working Conditions

We generally work a 40-hour week, with occasional additional night and weekend hours, in a supportive, dog-friendly office. We occasionally travel, including to remote areas by small plane, boat, or snow machine. The position is based in Anchorage, Alaska.

Qualifications

We are seeking candidates who have excellent legal, relationship building, and project management skills, and are results oriented. Strong candidates will have:

- Excellent writing, research, analytical, and interpersonal skills
- A demonstrated ability to think creatively
- A track record of managing judicial, legislative, or administrative projects
- Admitted to practice law in Alaska, eligible for reciprocity, or willing to sit for the next available bar exam
- The ability to work in a collaborative, team-based environment, including within large and diverse coalitions

Knowledge of Alaska, scientific experience, knowledge of environmental and administrative law are all pluses. Competitive non-profit salary based on experience, plus medical, dental, life, long-term disability, and retirement benefits, generous leave policy, and supportive co-workers. Trustees for Alaska is an equal opportunity employer.

How to Apply

E-mail cover letter and resume to Ashley Boyd, Office Manager, at aboyn@trustees.org.