

Litigation Attorney

Albuquerque-Santa Fe Metropolitan Area

Hall & Evans, L.L.C. is a well-established (1932) Regional Law Firm who is headquartered in Denver, CO but currently seeking an experienced Civil Litigation Attorney to support and work with existing clients in our Santa Fe, NM Branch Office. This position has the option to work remotely provided you are located within the general Albuquerque, NM area and available to commute to the office for client meetings or as needed. We need someone with the following credentials and experience to join our team:

- New Mexico law license in good standing (active status)
- 4+ years of experience and practice in NM
- Defense litigation experience
 - Trial experience a plus!
- Proven case management skills
- Exceptional research and writing skills
- Excellent communication and analytical skills
- Strong work ethic and commitment to excellence

If you have the above qualifications, then don't miss out on the opportunity to join an amazing Firm with a great culture that offers phenomenal growth opportunities. What do we offer in exchange for your dedication and legal expertise? A competitive salary with a bonus plan, a comprehensive benefits package that includes employee medical, dental, vision, life, AD&D, LTD insurance coverages fully paid by the Firm, co-shared premiums for dependent coverages and other terrific voluntary benefits are available as well. You will be working and learning from some of the most talented attorneys in the industry. Our goal is to foster a collaborative culture that honors work/life balance.

How to Apply

Please go to www.hallefans.com and select the careers tab and then follow the application process. We ask that everyone complete an online employment application, include a cover letter, your resume, and writing sample. * Please be aware that incomplete applications cannot be accepted for consideration.