OFFICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL
P.O. Box 830 - Sells, Arizona 85634
Telephone (520) 383-3410

POSITION NOTICE

March 2021

The Tohono O'odham Office of Attorney General is hiring one (1) Assistant Attorney General. The Office of Attorney General represents the interests of the Tohono O'odham Nation in tribal, state, and federal venues. While the posting is for an Assistant Attorney General IV, the Office of Attorney General will consider applicants with less than eight years of experience. Attorneys enjoy a diverse practice, face challenging jurisdictional issues, and protect tribal sovereignty. While attorneys with expertise in all areas of Indian law will be considered, gaming experience is a plus.

Position classifications and salaries are as follows:

- Assistant Attorney General I - $92,304 (1 year of legal experience)
- Assistant Attorney General II - $112,464 (3 years of legal experience)
- Assistant Attorney General III - $133,685 (6 years of legal experience)
- Assistant Attorney General IV - $155,033 (8 years of legal experience)

Requirements include an active Arizona State Bar license, or a Bar Member in another state and Arizona licensing within 18 months of commencement of employment. A valid Arizona driver's license is required, along with consent to have your driving record checked periodically. Applicants must also pass a background check. Indian Preference will be applied.

The Nation offers generous benefits including paid holidays, employer funded retirement plan, sick and annual leave, and low cost medical, dental, and vision insurance.

Please contact Acting Attorney General, Joshua Rees at (520)993-9465 or Joshua.Rees@tonation-nsn.gov if you have any specific questions.
