

Labor & Employment Employee Benefits Practice Group Attorney (All Offices)

Quarles & Brady LLP seeks an experienced Practice Group Attorney to join our Labor & Employment Employee Benefits team. This position is flexible on candidate location including remote working arrangements. The ideal candidate enjoys helping employers navigate the complex, always-changing, legal requirements impacting employee benefits, and has experience working with public and private companies, as well as tax-exempt organizations to solve compliance, design, risk and correction issues concerning their employee benefit plans. Specific experience includes: Employee benefit services such as qualified retirement plans; Employee benefits plans in mergers and acquisitions; Employee stock ownership plans (ESOPs); Executive compensation; Fringe benefits, and; Health and wellness plans. This is a part-time position, with a 10-15 hour per week expectation. Candidates must also have a very strong academic record paired with skills, enthusiasm and commitment to client service. Quarles & Brady is an equal opportunity employer