

Location: Tulsa, OK

Subjects: Clinical

Start Date: July 1, 2023

THE UNIVERSITY OF TULSA COLLEGE OF LAW invites applications from entry-level and experienced Clinical faculty for two long-term contract positions starting in the 2023-2024 academic year. The University of Tulsa's clinical programs, including its Buck Colbert Franklin Clinic, Terry West Civil Legal Clinic, Immigrant Rights Project, and Public Defender Clinic, serve clients with a wide range of legal needs. We seek candidates with a distinguished record of clinical teaching or practice experience, and a superior academic record demonstrating excellence in scholarship and clinical teaching or a strong potential to excel as scholars and clinicians. Candidates must possess a J.D. and be admitted, or eligible for admission, to the Oklahoma Bar. The University of Tulsa College of Law, as an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer, is committed to equality of opportunity in its employment of faculty and staff, without discrimination on the ground of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, disability, or sexual orientation. Members of under-represented groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

Interested candidates should submit a Letter of Interest, CV, Clinical Teaching Statement, and Diversity Statement. We value diverse experiences and backgrounds, including diversity of race, ethnicity, gender, age, religion, language, abilities/disabilities, sexual orientation, gender identity, socioeconomic status, and geographic region. A Diversity Statement should discuss equity, inclusion, and diversity as reflected in the candidate's (1) knowledge and understanding; (2) teaching and mentorship; (3) research; and (4) service and professional activities.

For consideration, applications must be submitted through:
