

Leonard Carder, LLP, with offices in San Francisco and Oakland, is looking for attorneys with 2-5+ years' experience/interest in union labor, employment and employee benefits law, and with a demonstrated commitment to the goals of workers' rights and the labor movement. Ideal candidates should have strong research, writing and analytical skills, as well as the ability to work effectively with unions and workers.

For more than 80 years, Leonard Carder has aided unions and workers involved in some of the most memorable labor struggles on the West Coast and has championed workers' rights in precedent-setting litigation. We represent local and international labor unions and employee benefit plans, as well as representing employees in class actions, individual workers' rights cases, and law reform litigation.

The salary range for associate attorneys is between $83,000 and $133,000 annually, depending on bar passage and experience. Associate attorneys are also eligible for annual bonuses. To apply, submit a letter of interest, a resume, references, and writing sample(s) to Carol Edgerton by email to cedgerton@leonardcarder.com.

Leonard Carder is committed to social justice in our practice and diversity in our hiring, and encourage applications from attorneys of color, women, the LGBTQIA+ community, and individuals with disabilities. For more information about our work, please visit our website at www.leonardcarder.com.
