

ALASKA NATIVE TRIBAL HEALTH CONSORTIUM
ATTORNEY IV
170,000.00-235,000.00

About the position: ANTHC, Alaska's largest Tribal health consortium is seeking an experienced Attorney IV. This newly added position will provide assigned legal services as an expert in complex, and/or sensitive legal and contract issues for ANTHC including legal/policy research, policy drafting and supporting advocacy efforts. Reviews contracts and legal agreements, assists in conducting investigations and provides education and counsel as appropriate.

What we're looking for: Juris doctorate; 9 years of experience (including substantial experience in litigation, transactions, healthcare law, employment law, and/or Federal Indian law and self-governance compacting) with 3 years in federal law and self-governance and admitted to practice before the Alaska State, Federal District, and other appropriate courts.

About ANTHC: ANTHC is the largest, most comprehensive Tribal health organization in the US, and Alaska's second-largest health employer with more than 3,100 employees offering an array of health services to people around the nation's largest state.

Our amazing benefits include: Medical insurance is provided through FEHB (22 different federal plans to choose from; ANTHC covers 80% of the premiums); 4 weeks PTO to start plus 11 paid holidays; Onsite childcare; onsite free gym access with additional access to the APU gym, rock-climbing, salt-water pool. ANTHC offers short/long-term disability, basic life insurance and AD&D at no cost. Retirement options include: 401a with 3% company contribution and up to 5% match and 403b discretionary. Tuition reductions for employees and their eligible dependents at APU.

To apply for this awesome opportunity, visit our website www.anthc.org. (Please note, our website is under construction from July 28-August 8; ANTHC will be accepting resumes during this period. Once the site is live, the application process will recommence.)