

Staff Attorney

The Blackfeet Tribe is seeking an entry level associate attorney to join the Blackfeet Legal Department in Browning, Montana. Selected candidates will conduct research, draft legal documents, contribute to case preparation, and participate in civil litigation in Federal, State, and Tribal courts. We seek a candidate with strong legal writing, analytical, and communication skills, coupled with a commitment to ethical standards. If you are prepared to make a significant contribution to our Department and strive for legal excellence, we encourage you to submit your application and be part of our dedicated team.

Interested candidates please email a cover letter, resume and a list of references to:
tgilham@blackfeetnation.com